

sPad Basic User Manual

1. Product Introduction

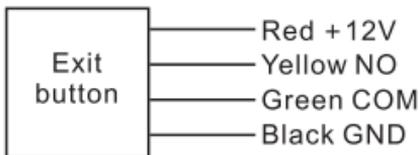

The Sebury new Exit Button accord with the standard 86 box design. Glass capacitive sensing touch panel. Attractive & wearproof. It will be your good choice for your access control system.

2. Technical Parameters

Input Voltage: DC12-24V

Standby Current: < 5mA

3. Wiring Instruction

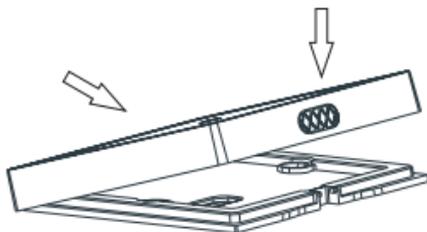

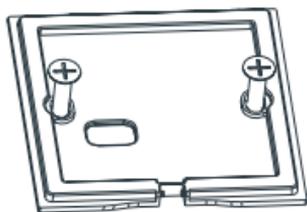

4. Operation instruction

The red indicator light will be normally on after the power on. The green indicator light will be on. When you press the icon of LOCK on the glass touch panel. In the meantime, the built-in relay contact connected (The NO & COM connected). The green indicator light will be off when stop touching the icon of LOCK. In the meantime, the built-in relay contact disconnected (The NO & COM disconnected).

5. Installation and disassembly

Fix the back housing of the exit button on the 86box or fix it on the wall. Do the wire connection follow the wiring diagram. Then downward the front housing on the back housing and press it tight. When you hear the sound of Kaca means the installation done. Please check the below installation diagram below.

When disassemble the exit button. Press the middle part of the back housing and pull it upward. Pull out all the wires then you can take out the front housing. Please check the below pictures.

